Here at home are we, snug, warm, and happy, as we look at snow drops and daisies... While for overseas, there crawls bloody death on slinky Korean hills... Boys in college over here pore over graphs and molecules... Over there, lads are taught to kill or die—lessons not learned in schools... Will he make the team? Will he win a blue key?... For that one on ocean's deep there's no quiet sleep... Maybe death in the briny sea.

So we at home sit idly by, avoid the blast of fury... Mother's hearts grieve and they do not deceive when they merely breathe a deep sigh... They dwell on the thought of what man has wrought... Maybe they should serve on a jury... They would condemn forever the men who grew rich and sleek... Who fatten on carnage, spoils, and with blood do reek... They become the devil himself.

Would God there were men scornful of riches and self?... For would lift high clean hands and from pure hearts cry out... For Justice, Mercy, and Truth... Men could no longer doubt... That God is still in his Heaven, still down on the good earth, His truth will prevail... Then Mother would look down on the flower, mountain peak, Hill or Dale, Yes, Joy and Peace would be our lot... And a deep content with what we've got.

JANE will keep writing rhyme and maybe someday we'll be able to add beauty and rhythm.

A NEW CLUB has been added in Statesboro and we hail it as a happy addition to the many clubs already in our town. It is called "The Jolly Club." As we read the list of members it occurred to me that many of these women had known grief, or sickness. Many of them have spent painful hours at the hospital and they got together and organized the Jolly Club. Here and now, I believe they will be exactly that. Usually that person or persons, who have experienced grief and sickness, have a keener appreciation of the amusing and happy events they encounter, than those who take them for granted. In this group are: Mrs. K. D. Wildes, Mrs. R. S. Bondurant, Mrs. Logan Hagan, Mrs. Pen-ton Anderson, Mrs. J. F. Darley, Mrs. Bantam Cowart, Mrs. M. E. Alderman, Mrs. W. T. Coleman, a new comer, Mrs. E. L. Mikell, and Mrs. Julian Groover.

WE HAVE A CORRECTION on a bit of news we carried last week. Dr. Norris who was in the party attending the World Series Games in New York, denies the statement that he had never been out of Georgia before. He says he had been out of the state twice, he figured they would be extra nice to him, if they thought it was a real momentous occasion, and it was wonderful for them all.

STATESBORO DENTISTS and wives have a wonderful time at the Georgia Dental Convention in Savannah. Sunday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Lane and Dr. and Mrs. John Jackson attended the President's reception at the De-Soto. They were entertained at a dinner party at the Oglethorpe Hotel with Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Thomas as their hosts. After dinner the party moved on to the Thomas home in Savannah. Billy Lane played the violin, Jake Jackson played the piano and the rest of them sang. They reported a wonderful time and all went back Tuesday and Wednesday. Dr. and Mrs. Hunter Robertson joined the Statesboro group Tuesday.

NEXT TIME you tune in for a Georgia Tech home game of football, listen during the half for a Statesboro voice. Yes, Daniel Blitch, president of Student Coun-the play yard at the Jake Smith's. Maybe they'd better enlarge the play ground for little Ann and Beth Smith will add to the fun.

DID YOU SEE the lovely picture of Miriam Smith (We called her happy) in the Savannah paper? Happy has been elected Editor of the Savannah Blue Jacket High School Annual.

SHADES OF GRAY, coral, Dutch blue, interesting pottery in green, desert rose. Counters gleaming a complete soda fountain, a complete electric kitchen. Appliances we never knew existed, and food? Well, there was tender fried chicken, the preparation of which I watched with interest, making of shortening in three levels, three temperatures finished a chicken to a mouth watering golden brown. Immediately it was lifted to a wire strainer which extended the length of the chicken fryer which turns out 125 chickens in an hour. On the menu it reads chicken without silver. The attractive waitresses moving rapidly to take orders wore black uniforms with white lace trimmed coquettish caps and aprons.

The serving was done from the open kitchen. Everywhere I went, there was equipment I had never dreamed of. Yes, we found all this and more at the Franklin Drive-In on North Main street. Yes, we welcome Mr. and Mrs. Joe Franklin and their son, Joe Jr., who is five years old. They make gallons of shortening in three levels, three temperatures finished

FERGUSON

Dares to Make!

As the Ferguson Dealer in this community, we will publicly match the new and far more powerful Ferguson "30" against any other tractor. We dare to do this because the new Ferguson "30" is bigger in power, in performance, in economy! At a "Showdown" demonstration we will prove that the Ferguson "30" with Ferguson System Implements meets more of the needs of more of the farmers... more of the time... than any other tractor... outperforming them doing all of the following jobs:

Moldboard Plowing	Harrowing,	Rotary Hoeing	Side Delivery Raking
Disc Plowing	Spike Tooth	Row Crop Cultivating	Loading & Spreading
Harrowing,	Harrowing,	Field Tilling	Wood Lot Sawing
Tandem Disc.	Spring Tooth	Subsoiling

There you are, farmers! The stage is set for a "Showdown." We know we have the best tractor in the world and we're ready to prove it to you.

We are not just claiming what the Ferguson "30" can do. We'll let this demonstration do the talking for us.

If you are thinking of buying a new tractor, look at all of them. Listen to what other dealers tell you their tractors can do. Ask these dealers if they are willing to prove these claims at a "Showdown" demonstration on your own farm. Then get in touch with us.

Match these jobs a Ferguson Tractor can do with Ferguson System Implements against similar jobs any other tractor claims to do... and you'll see we can do these jobs better with our new Ferguson "30." And we'll ask you to be the judge of how much better we do them.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLIE COLE MR. AND MRS. WALLIS COBB ENTERTAIN AT SUPPER

The beautiful stretch of lawn extending to College street back of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole was the scene Monday evening of an outdoor supper followed by old fashioned games and dances under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Wilson. Mrs. Waldo Floyd, a neighbor, was responsible for the lovely centerpiece on the long table, a huge bouquet of roses, gerberas, geraniums, and magnolia leaves from the garden.

At intervals, hurricane lamps improvised from styrofoam bases and wired handles, over the burning candles were placed on the larger table and also centered the smaller tables placed over the lawn where the guests were seated.

A large wooden table and wooden chairs were conveniently placed for self service. Baked meats, baked beans in brown bean pots, cole slaw and rice, were served. Individual cakes, featuring a pumpkin cake, coffee cups were repeatedly filled.

Father Smith Makes Statement

To My Friends in Statesboro and Bulloch County:
I have just returned from a six week lecture tour and have time to sit down and write to you about the talk I am supposed to have delivered on August 31st in St. Theresa's Church, Long Island. Before I comment on the letter may I thank so many of you for expressing your trust that "Father" didn't say those things about the people of Statesboro.

The first seven minutes of the sermon was a general treatment of the millions of Americans who do not believe in Christ. I was speaking of the vast group of un-believing Americans, all over America, North and South, when I used the term "practically pagan in their attitude toward life." I am sure that my friends among the ministers of Bulloch County have preached on the same theme many times for the dangers of Communism can be offset only if the full teachings of Jesus Christ.

Mrs. Hickey then takes many of the statements I have made about the millions of unbelieved, non-believing Americans and quotes them as if I were attacking Protestants, Southerners and the people of Statesboro. How she turned my talk into an attack upon other denominations, I truly do not know. At no time did I attack Protestants or any denomination. I was not speaking of sincere Christians or any denomination. You will recall that during my seven years in Statesboro, I fought religious intolerance as unchristian, ill-literate, ill-raised pagans nor did I say anything which could be interpreted to mean the same thing.

The letter also states that I was in New York to raise money to carry on my work in the South. Again I fear, she missed the point. My sermon had a threefold purpose and these I stated very clearly, repeating them twice. The first was an appeal to the congregation to pray every day that Almighty God will grant to the millions of our fellow Americans who have no faith, the grace to accept the full teachings of Christ Jesus. I warned them that the example of their own lives would either draw souls to Christ or drive them from Him.

The second point of the talk was this: I asked the congregation to pray "The Lord of the Harvest to send laborers into His vineyard." I reminded them again of the millions who have no belief in Christ and asked them to pray that God will raise up sturdy-souled men and women to carry the gospel to the millions of our fellow Americans who have no faith, the grace to accept the full teachings of Christ Jesus. I warned them that the example of their own lives would either draw souls to Christ or drive them from Him.

I would like to repeat here several of the statements I made about Statesboro and her folks. In the very beginning of my talk I told the people that I am a Southerner in my likes and sympathies. I said that Statesboro was one of the most beautiful towns I had ever seen and that the people are most sincere and lovable. I meant it very much when I said that had I been given my choice I would like to have spent my life there. I do not believe that the people of Statesboro would have been insulted had they been present at my talk on Sunday morning, August 31st.

In closing, may I say that this is the time of the year when I miss Bulloch County most, particularly when on Friday evenings I know the Statesboro Blue Devils are on the touchdown march. Have a good season team!

In Christ, sincerely,
FATHER ED SMITH

The winner of the Region 2-B football championship will be announced at midnight on Saturday, November 29, following Thanksgiving.

Thanks to my roommates, I am being accustomed to the understanding of these words with the help of my strong imagination day by day. I still refer to the fact that the best way to be familiar with conversation much sooner is to try to understand these prelinguistic vocabularies.

As it is said that one man's meat is not another's, my next difficult and uneasy thing is to use a knife, spoon and fork in the dining hall. It goes without saying that I feel much easier to use a chopstick which is quite accustomed to me than to use these things. I don't mean to say that I have never used these but anyway I give me trouble.

Now you will not easily be able to imagine how happy I am in being accustomed to the understanding of these words with the help of my strong imagination day by day. I still refer to the fact that the best way to be familiar with conversation much sooner is to try to understand these prelinguistic vocabularies.

I am sorry for my tedious and disconnected story. I am afraid it was not interesting to you. Thank you.

Blue Devils Defeat Sylvania 26 To 0

Representatives of William J. J. Chase and Associates, architects for the extension to the hospital, are expected here within the week to confer with the hospital authorities on plans for construction.

In the first quarter Statesboro moved from their 32 yard line to Sylvania's 41 on runs by Bobby Newton and Albert Stewart. Newton then took the ball to the 26 on a end play, and a few Fletcher kicks to Stewart on Sylvania's 32 yard line, made it easy for Newton to bull his way over for the score.

During the next two quarters there was no scoring threats by either team.

The Blue Devils covered a Sylvania fumble on the Gamecock five yard line in the fourth quarter to open up a scoring spree which began with James Cassidy carrying the ball over from the point of the recovered fumble.

On a series of pass plays, the Gamecocks got to the Blue Devil ten, only to have Albert Stewart intercept a pass on his own five and carry the ball 95 yards to score again for the home team. Fletcher booted the extra point.

Wayne Parrish intercepted another Sylvania pass on the Gamecock 30 and returned it to the 10. From there Charlie Joe Hollingsworth threw to Quincy Waters for six more points.

Sylvania's good passing attack was upset by interceptions and the strong Blue Devil line, in which John Webb was an outstanding defender. Gamecocks Bobby Chambers and Paige Pierce impressed the fans with their good plays for the visiting eleven.

Statesboro plays Vidalia in Vidalia, Friday night.

Funds from the carnival will go on playground equipment and for the installation of additional water fountains at the school. All citizens of that section of the county are invited to attend.

Herald's Neighbors Help With This Week's Issue

So you missed our editorial page this week. Thanks. And you missed your party, your notice of your club meeting, your writup of your visit out of town, or publicity for your favorite project.

And we regret it, too. But there is a reason. Billy Gerrald, our typesetting machine operator, is in the hospital. He has been there since Monday morning of this week. We do not know when he will be well again and back at work.

Leonard Dickey, who works for Kenan's Print Shop, came in at night to help us. Norman Chalker, publisher of The Sylvania Telephone, Sylvania, helped us.

We got a paper out—but we just did. Next week it will be the same. Our neighbor, Milton Beckerman, of The Claxton Enterprise, has offered to help us. Please understand our problem and be patient.
